Down an Attic Stairs.

August Walter, a German married man, about forty-one years old, who lives at No. 455 Sycamore street, met with a serious accident this morning, which might result fatally.

Walter, during the storm about 3 o'clock, was awakened by the creaking noise of a swinging window in the attle of his house. He got up and went up stairs to close it. The stairway leading to the attic was quite dark and he took no light with him.

When he arrived at the top of the stairway his foot slipped and he was precipitated to the floor beneath. His moans brought out his family, who picked him up and took him to his rooms. An officer from Bremen street was notified, and he at once repaired to the Station-house and telegraphed to the Cincinnati Hospital for an ambulance. When he arrived at this place the at-
